

BIG WIGGS WAS TRIMMED

Intercity Took Game From the "Pennant Chasers."

IN A PITCHERS' BATTLE

"Bobby" Burns and the Cabbage Patch Allowed But Five Hits and Fielders Did Some Great Stunts.

It was a splendid pitchers' battle at the Intercity grounds yesterday afternoon, with the luck breaking for Burns, the plucky twirler of the Giants, over his strapping opponent, Wiggs, of Burlington. Each pitcher allowed five hits. Burns struck out seven, to eleven by the big fellow, and gave four free trips to the first sack, while Wiggs was free with three. One of the latter's gifts was costly, while Burns was fortunate in his distribution. In addition the visitor made a wild pitch which was a powerful aid toward securing the Intercity's two scores. Burlington's one tally was earned. All in all the game was one of the best ever seen on the local grounds.

The teams supported their pitchers in fine shape. Unic, who was back in the game after a week's illness, made a fool of a grounder, but there was no harm done. Stankard failed to squeeze a grounder, also, but that misplay was no more costly than the other. Stankard came back, however, with a play of the marvelous type, taking a Texas league fly way out in right field, running backward and picking the ball out of the atmosphere with one hand. The spectators cheered as lustily as possible, but couldn't get Stankard to acknowledge it. Coombs who played center in place of McMahon, who is not yet off the cripple list had three put-outs, one of which caused a sigh of relief to go around for there were two men on bases and the ball, a short hit, looked as if it would drop safe. Ball, of the Wellington team of Dorchester, Mass., filled Eaton's shoes behind the bat acceptably, and will do so until Eaton gets well from his injuries received Tuesday. He has an accurate throw to second, and besides he made the runners hug the other bases.

Aldinger covered lots of ground in left field for Burlington, gathering in three flies in finished style. Wiggs was a handy man with the bat, getting two hits in three times up, while Deiningger did the same. Unic was the Giants' strong man with the willow, making two hits, with a total of three, in three time up.

Umpire Ready had another chapter of his troubles, and it looked at one time as if the Burlington bunch, as about to smother him in their wrath. Both sides got some bad decisions, but Burlington got the little end of the bargain without doubt. Deiningger was deprived of second base in the eighth inning when he deserved it. After hitting for a single he went down to second on Matthews' strike-out. Ball made a perfect throw and had Deiningger caught by a foot but Stankard dropped the ball. The umpire saw the ball get there and saw Stankard put it on his man, but didn't see the sphere immediately roll out of the baseman's hands. The visitors were right in putting up a protest, but it didn't amount to anything.

The locals scored their two in the first inning. Wiggs failed to take Ashmore's measure, and Ashy got a free pass. Dorman neatly sacrificed him to second with a grounder to Dowd. Unic was there with a safe hit over second, and Ashmore went to third. Morey, who ran for Unic, started to steal, and when Warner fired the ball down there was no one on second to receive it. Ashmore therefore tallied the first score. Coombs fanned at three balls. Shangnessy did the same, but meanwhile Wiggs had worked in a wild pitch, on which Morey scored, having gone to third on the failure to catch him at second.

Wiggs settled down after that, and had the home team guessing up to the eighth inning, when it looked like more runs. Ball opened that inning by flying out to Aldinger and Ashmore went out by the same route. Dorman came up with a single, however, to be followed a minute later with a two-bagger by Unic to the fence, the best hit of the game. They died on second and third, as Coombs failed to connect with the ball.

Several times things looked dark for Burns. For instance in the second, with one down, he gave two passes in succession. But Skelly succumbed, making two out, and Coombs disposed of Burlington's chances by catching Warner's short fly, after a long run. Also in the third people shivered, in spite of the heat. Wiggs singled but Dowd hit into a fast double play, with Unic, Stankard and Ashmore digging. Burns gave Deiningger his base and Stankard fell down on Matthews' grounder, fumbling and then throwing wild to first. Deiningger was on third and Matthews on second when Unic scooped up Hazelton's grounder and got his man at first.

By consecutive hitting Burlington earned its score in the fifth. Warner hit by short. Wiggs planted a safe one popped to Ashmore. Deiningger singled to center, scoring Warner. There were still two men on bases and only one out when Ashmore worked in a heady play. Matthews pounded a fast grounder to "Ruth" who took it cleanly and ran half-way to meet "Matty," thereby holding Wiggs on third. Hazelton tried hard to tie the score but closed the Timely and Valuable Suggestions.

Many people, especially women who lead closely confined domestic lives, suffer from what in general terms is called "nervousness." Among all forms of treatment none has been so successful in success the intelligent use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., which promotes an easy and natural action of the digestive organs and imparts tone to the nervous system.

SAFE ONES.

Umpire Ready is as good as his name; he's too ready to give decisions.

Ashmore is a crafty player, and evidence of his base ball genius are constantly cropping out.

Coombs was not slow as a fielder, although his position is in the box.

Stankard fully atoned for his misplay in the second with one of the finest catches ever made on the local field. Stankard's height came in handy then.

The attendance is picking up. There should be a big crowd out tomorrow to see the Rutland game. It will be called at 3:15.

Warner, Burlington's catcher, is the Jack Warner of St. Louis league ball fame. Yet Warner didn't show up any better than Ball, who was drafted to fill Eaton's place.

Cabbage Patch Wiggs is easily the biggest man in the league, physically speaking. But he undoubtedly is feeling several sizes smaller after yesterday's defeat. It broke his string of victories. He is a Tri-state man.

Wiggs wears a "C" on his shirt, and he was quickly dubbed Cabbage.

Dorman had a rest on third. Not a solitary ball came his way.

Hazelton is an apologetic fellow. He apologized to Wiggs for not making an impossible catch of a foul. Wiggs simply grinned.

Capt. Dorman performed the rare feat of making as good as a hit on three strikes. Warner missed the third ball.

PLATTSBURG COULDN'T HIT.

When Hits Were Needed in Game Which Rutland Won, 5 to 2.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 14.—The feature of the game with Rutland yesterday afternoon was the kicking of the visitors over Umpire Brown's decision. Short Stop Dyer of Rutland was benched for his kicking. Shean taking his place.

Weak Stomach.

A weak stomach is most frequently caused by the over-worked and exhausted nervous system.

The power that runs the stomach is the nerve force sent to it from the brain through the nerves. When the nerves are weak or exhausted the supply of energy is insufficient and the action of the stomach is impaired, and results in imperfect digestion—dyspepsia.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve increases nerve force. It strengthens and builds up nerve tissue, gives vigor to the nerves and muscles of the stomach; this produces a healthy activity. Nerve allays the inflammation, heals the membranes, and makes the stomach strong and healthy. There is nothing that so quickly gives energy to the whole system as Restorative Nerve.

"I can't say enough for Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. I don't know what it will do for others, but it certainly cured me of stomach trouble, and now I am as well as I ever was. Two physicians failed to relieve me, but in three or four days after taking Nerve I was much relieved. Four bottles made me a sound man, at the cost of $4.00."

JAMES E. HART, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

HIGH ORDER OF BOX WORK

Dineen and White Had Great Fight Yesterday.

IN A TEN-INNING GAME

Each Man Allowed Four Safe Hits—"Little Cy" Young of the Nationals Also Pitched Great Battle.

Chicago, July 14.—Safe hits were few and far between in yesterday's great battle between the Champions and the White Sox. Dineen and White pitched wonderful games each allowing but four hits in the ten innings that the game went. White had the better of Dineen in strike outs, sending eight men to the bench to three by the visitor. White gave two passes, and Dineen gave one and hit one man. Both pitchers were admirably supported by their teams. The only error was chalked up to the home team and that didn't do any damage.

In the first three innings Chicago secured two hits but nothing came of them. In the fourth Boston scored its first run on Parent's single, Burckett's out, Collins' free pass and Stahl's single. Collins was caught at the plate on Stahl's hit. The home team tied the score in the seventh on Holmes' double, Davis' sacrifice and Donohue's out to Stahl.

The rest of the game there was no hitting until the tenth when Ferris and Freeman singled, the former going home on Criger's out to Holmes.

"LITTLE CY'S" GREAT GAME.

Boston Nationals' Pitcher Let Down Cincinnati With Four Hits.

Boston July 14.—"Little Cy" Young pitched a masterly game against the Cincinnati Reds yesterday afternoon, and the demoralized Hubites captured the game easily by the score of 6 to 1. He let the Reds down with four hits. Their only score came in the third on a double and two outs. Seymour worked in the second of their four hits in the same inning but died on an attempted steal.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"

PRaise FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words."

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started; I am regular, and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day."

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

DEPEW NOT OUT.

Has Not Resigned as Director of the Equitable Life.

New York, July 14.—Senator Depew has not resigned as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. This announcement was made yesterday by Chairman Paul Morton of the Equitable, when his attention was directed to an interview with the senator in Paris Wednesday, which was printed here yesterday. Mr. Morton said that just before Senator Depew sailed for Europe a few weeks ago he told the chairman that he would resign as director and that he had no objection to his $20,000 a year position as special counsel to the society being cancelled or abolished. No formal presentation of the resignation ever had been made, however, and Mr. Morton said he was unprepared to say whether or not it would be accepted if tendered. Senator Depew's connection with the society as special counsel will terminate on Aug. 1, as already announced.

HENDRICKS TO JEROME.

Says District Attorney Never Asked for Equitable Report.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 14.—Superintendent Hendricks yesterday declined to say anything about the Equitable report excepting that District Attorney Jerome never asked the insurance department for a copy of it. A copy had been sent to the New York office because, Hendricks says, "Jerome was talking so much about it I thought he might want the report."

Superintendent Hendricks professes to be little worried because the report got published and to have no interest in locating the leak. Although he doesn't say so, it is known that he believes the leak was in the attorney general's office.

SHE SOUGHT BEAUTY.

But Mrs. Ware Says a New York Doctor Inflicted Scars.

New York, July 14.—Dr. Andrew L. Nelden, who is supposed to be able to graft fingers and noses, and to add to the sum total of human beauty, was arraigned in the Tombs police court yesterday morning, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. The complainant was Mrs. Josephine Ware of Denver, whose wrinkles the prisoner did not smooth away. Three other women from out of town have also complained to the district attorney.

Mrs. Ware said she paid $200 down and $2.50 weekly. Dr. Nelden, she declared, guaranteed to rid her of wrinkles in two weeks, but at the end of six weeks she still had the wrinkles, and, in addition, her face was badly scarred. She had in the meantime, paid out about $1,000.

CUTICURA CURED AT ONCE

"My child was a very delicate baby. A terrible sore and humor broke out on his body, looking like raw flesh, and causing the child untold agony. My physician prescribed various remedies, none of which helped at all. I became discouraged and took the matter into my own hands, and tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment with almost immediate success. Before the second week had passed the soreness was gone, not leaving a trace of anything. Mrs. Jeannette H. Block, 281 Rosedale St., Rochester, N. Y."

WILSON IS GOING AHEAD

Has No Advice or Orders From President.

EVERY MOVE HIS OWN

No Indication That He Will Leave the Cabinet—Business Men Needed in the Department Bureau.

Washington, July 14.—Secretary Wilson insists that he has not received directly or indirectly any advice, suggestion or orders from President Roosevelt in connection with the present scandals in the department of agriculture. He declares that every move that has been made and all the investigations leading up to the disclosures of Holmes' actions in selling advance information concerning crop conditions has been made on his own initiative. President Roosevelt has, of course, been kept advised of all the steps taken in unearthing the scandal, and the secret service operative's report as well as the original charges made by Mr. Cheatham of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, have been transmitted to Oyster Bay. It is explicitly declared that the president has not expressed any dissatisfaction with the steps that have been taken by Mr. Wilson. No credence is placed here in the suggestions advanced in yesterday's despatches that the secretary of agriculture will be forced to resign, following the revelations that have been made of incompetency and wrong doing in his department.

Mr. Wilson is criticised, however, for retaining John Hyde. No evidence has been produced, Mr. Wilson says, involving Mr. Hyde or showing that he had any knowledge of the practices for which Holmes was dismissed. Those who criticized the secretary say that Hyde should be dismissed because of this very lack of knowledge of what was going on in the division under his control. A belief exists that others besides Holmes knew that the latter was engaged in selling information to stock brokers, and the suspicion follows that they may have tried to make money in the same way on reports of crops other than cotton.

That the department of agriculture runs too largely to scientists and lacks business men at the head of its various divisions is one of the most commonly heard complaints. The suggestion is made that if a few practical business men were distributed throughout the department to check the proposals of the scientists and to make them demonstrate the feasibility and practical worth of the new ideas they are so constantly advancing a more effective administration would follow.
